[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 1837 OF 2007-2008.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT RELATIVE TO NON DISCRIMINATION TRAINING IN THE WORKPLACE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3A of Chapter 151B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out subsection (e), and replacing it with the 3 following:-

4 (e) Employers and labor organizations are encouraged to conduct an education and training
5 program for new non-supervisory employees and members, within one year of commencement 6 of employment or membership, which includes at a minimum the information set forth in this 7 section.

8 SECTION 2. Chapter 151B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004 Official Edition, is hereby 9 amended by inserting after section 3A the following section:-

10 Section 3B. Training and education for supervisory and managerial employees

11 By January 1, 2010, employers are encouraged to provide at least two hours of classroom or 12 other effective interactive training and education regarding illegal workplace discrimination, 13 harassment and retaliation to all supervisory and managerial employees who are employed as of 14 July 1, 2008, and to all new supervisory and managerial employees within six months of their 15 assumption of a supervisory or managerial position. After January 1, 2010, employers are 16 encouraged to provide such training and education to each supervisory or managerial employee 17 once every two years.

18 (a) The training and education described in this section should include at a minimum (i) 19 information and practical guidance regarding the federal and state statutory provisions 20 concerning the prohibition against and the prevention and correction of workplace

21 discrimination, harassment and retaliation, (ii) information about the remedies available to 22 victims of workplace discrimination, harassment and retaliation, and (iii) practical examples 23 aimed at instructing supervisors and managerial employees in the prevention of discrimination, 24 harassment and retaliation. The training and education shall be presented by trainers or 25 educators with knowledge and expertise in the prevention of discrimination, harassment and 26 retaliation.

27 (b) A claim that the training and education described by this section did not reach a 28 particular individual or individuals shall not in and of itself result in the liability of any employer
29 to any present or former employee or applicant in an action alleging illegal workplace
30 discrimination, harassment or retaliation. Conversely, an employer's compliance with this 31 section does not insulate the employer from liability for discrimination, harassment or retaliation 32 against any current or former employee or applicant.

33 (c) An employer's compliance with this section with respect to a particular supervisor or 34 managerial employee shall be an affirmative defense to any action alleging illegal 35 discrimination, harassment or retaliation brought against an employer based on that supervisor's
36 or managerial employee's actions or failure to act. Any employer that has provided the training 37 and education described by this section to a supervisory or managerial employee after January 1, 38 2007 is not required to provide additional training and education by the January 1, 2009 deadline
39 in order to assert this affirmative defense.

40 (d) The training and education described in this section is intended to establish a minimum 41 threshold and should not discourage any employer from providing for longer, more frequent, or 42 more elaborate training and education regarding unlawful workplace discrimination, harassment 43 and retaliation in order to meet its obligations to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent 44 and correct discrimination, harassment and retaliation.
